

MINT'S SETHU SERIES

We continue our series examining the economic, political and environmental fallout of the Sethusamudram project.

The coverage so far:

VHP plans Ayodhya with Sethusamudram
22 July 2007

Will Adam's Bridge remain a bridge too far for the VHP?
1 August

Govt puts Adam's Bridge project chief on leave amid soaring costs
3 August

Silence, controversy shroud Sethu project
11 September

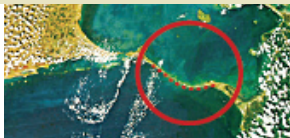

Project a recipe for disaster, scientists say
12 September

No one benefits from a Rs2,600 cr channel
13 September

Channelling religious sentiment into rare political opportunity
14 September

Govt on back foot, withdraws affidavit
15 September

Money runs dry for Sethusamudram
25 September

Centre criticized for excluding key experts from Sethu panel 23 October

Alternative N-fuel mired in Sethu waters 27 October

Muslims say it's our heritage, but develop it for nation's sake 12 January 2008

Status of Sethu project remains hazy, RTI Act does not help 14 January

Congress faces crisis of faith over Sethusamudram project 16 January

I will go ahead with the Sethu project: TR Baalu 6 February

Govt offers scant religious link for Sethu
1 March

Verdict on Sethu Samudram project unlikely today 5 March

Will the Sethu channel be a security risk?
13 March

Govt considered using explosives though project okay specified 'no blasting'
14 March

Read our full coverage at <http://www.livemint.com/sethusamudram.htm>