

MORE DANGER IN THE AIR

Even as Mumbai limps back to normalcy after the terror attacks last week, security was tightened at airports around the country following threats of more destruction.

All major airports

New Delhi, Bangalore, Mumbai, Chennai and Kolkata

The warning has been issued after an email, which said that on 6 December, terror groups might strike at these airports or hijack planes.

Gujarat coast

The state's coast has been put on high alert. Almost half of the 12,000 trawlers and 20,000 boats engaged in fishing from Gujarat's coastal areas kept away from the sea on Thursday.

Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi

There was panic at the Tis Hazari Courts in the national capital on Thursday after an anonymous caller threatened to blow up the complex, leading to proceedings being suspended for the day.

Coimbatore airport

Security has been tightened at the airport following a threat that a bomb blast would occur on Thursday evening. According to police sources, the threat was found written with chalk on a plastic tray in the waiting hall of the airport.

