

DIFFICULT TIMES

THE NEWS

Wyeth's global clinical trials of an advanced pneumonia vaccine suspended by the drug controller following the death of a baby.

THE BACKGROUND

This comes at a time when India is tightening its clinical trial guidelines and also mulling the introduction of phase I trials by foreign firms.

THE IMPLICATIONS

Wyeth will not have access to any new data on the vaccine from India.